The fire house at Toga nears completion as volunteer firemen expect it to be finished in from 60 to 90 days. They have received quite a lot of voluntary help in the building of the fire house, and volunteer artisans can still be used.

Volunteer Fire Department

worthwhile cause. In addition to the funds raised they have received a great deal of volunteer help and other assistance from Jack Marshall; Moses Motor Co.; Lawson Ford Co.) Bill Sperry, auctioneer; Glenmore, Dillwyn and Lynchburg Fire Departments; Bill Crump, Chesapeake Corp.; Paul Anders, sign painter; Appomattox Jaycees, and many other interested citizens.
The members are concerned with the calls they didn't receive. Recently two barns and equipment in two separate fires were complete losses which might have been saved had Toga been called. One fire was in Buckingham, the other in Appomattox County. Chief Hoag urges all people living in the Toga area to make a special note of the Toga Fire Department telephone number 983-2521. This number will alert a dispatcher in Dillwyn, who will in turn alert all Toga firemen in less than 20 seconds.
Each member especially thanks all those people who donated items to the recent auction and those who have contributed both money and time in the past. As construction continues on the fire house they need carpenters, masons, and materials, particularly help in installation of a heating system. Anyone wishing to help is asked to contact any of the members.
Officers of the department are: Carter Taylor, president; Bob Mann, vice president; Robert Seay, secretary; Buck Agee, treasurer; Skip Hoag, chief; Bobbie Gowin, assistant chief; Fred Perutelli, captain; Bill Talbert and Arthur Moore, first lieutenants; Dyches Seay, fire marshall; William Alford, chaplain; and Raymond Agee, quartermaster.
Other members of the department are Ira Coffey, Kyle Jamerson, Mike Perutelli, Joe Harris, George Duff, Dick Morgan, John Harris, Vernon Childs, Bucky Wood, Roger Moore, Tommie Moore, and Bernard Adcock.

MORE AMERICANS ARE EATING AT HOME
The September Consumer Price Index for "food at home," which is food bought in a grocery store rather than in restaurants, was 21.5% above a year earlier. In the same month the dollar volume of sales of food stores was only 12.5% above a year earlier.
This seems to indicate that more Americans are eating at home but they are either eating less food or probably cheaper food. Recent statistics show that there has been a sharp decline in the consumption of fresh meat and poultry.

Highway Dept. Wins Awards

Virginia's highway program has won national awards for landscaping and billboard control in the sixth annual competition sponsored by the U.S. Department of Transportation to demonstrate the compatibility of highways and the environment.
Judges selected a segment of Interstate 64 near Charlottesville as the nation's best example of highway landscaping for 1973, and decided for the first time in the contest's history to give a special commendation for the Virginia Department of Highways efforts to control billboards along Interstate 95.
Federal officials said the competition attracted 1,056 photographic entries from all 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia "illustrating how highways cannot only be attractive, but can have a beneficial impact on the areas traversed."
Virginia was recognized in the landscaping category of the competition for a section of I-64 east of the Va., Route 20 interchange in Albemarle County, where for more than a mile the golden-colored blooms of Scotch broom plants beautify the roadside and median areas in the spring and early summer.
The landscaping project was designed by the Highway Department's environmental quality division, and was carried out at a cost of $78,936. The actual planting was done under a contract awarded by the Highway Commission to Waynesboro Nursery and the Gilmore Plant and Bulb Company of Julian, N.C. First place in the landscaping category went to the Maryland Department of Transportation.
The special commendation award was given to recognize Virginia's program to control outdoor advertising. The judges specifically cited a section of Interstate 95 at Secondary 632, in Caroline County, where three billboards were removed as part of a larger project completed in November, 1972.
That project was conducted under the federal Highway Beautification Act of 1965 and parallel state legislation, which control the locations of outdoor advertising signs and provide compensation for owners of signs and land in instances in which signs are removed to comply with the law.
Judges for the national competition were:
Under Secretary John W. Barnum of the U.S. Department of Transportation; Jeanne Cooey, roadside chairman of the National Council of State Garden Clubs; city planner Arnold Vollmer of Vollmer Associates in New York City; landscape architect Henry F. Arnold of Arnold Associates in Princeton, New Jedrsey; architee t Douglas Smith of Barton-Aschman Associates in Washington; architect Sarah P. Harkness of Architects Collaborative in Cambridge, Massachusetts; Eugene Johnson, president of The Asphalt Institute; and industrial designer Eugene Smith of F. Eugene Smith Associates of Bath, Ohio.

Hogs

Hog prices are expected to show added strength following the holiday season as the increased seasonal slaughter tapers off.
October pork production is down 4 per cent from this time last year but 24 per cent higher than that of September 1973. The slaughter of 7 million head represents a 7 per cent reduction from last year – but, again, 24 per cent higher than in September of this year.
Cold storage holdings on November 1 total 222 million pounds of frozen and cured pork - 12 per cent higher than October's (1973) report and 6 per cent above last year's figure. Federal inspection for November slaughter was down 8 - 9 per cent from last year.
The USDA December 1, 1973 Hog and Pig Report will be released on December 21.
Hog prices last Thursday in Peoria were: $39.75 - $41.00; Indianapolis, $40.50 - $41.00; Richmond, $39.00 - $39.50; and Southeast Virginia, Grades 1 to 3, $38.75 - $40.00.
